5 Reasons You Need a Tour Protection Plan

1. You've invested a significant expense in your trip. If you have to cancel, you'll lose that money.

Cancelling a trip is disappointing enough. You don't want to lose your entire trip investment on top of it. The Trip Cancellation benefit may cover you if you or a family member becomes ill or seriously injured before your trip, or if there's a death in the family. You may also be covered in the event of natural disaster or bad weather impacting your home or destination, being laid off from your job, or if your travel supplier (such as an airline) goes bankrupt or on strike. There are more reasons, too read them all in the policy, including terms and conditions for each. For the most flexibility, you can upgrade your plan with the Cancel For Any Reason (CFAR)* option.

*(CFAR is available if the plan is purchased within 14 days of the initial trip deposit. Other conditions apply. Not available to residents of NY or WA. Must cancel at least two days prior to departure. Read policy for full details.)

2. Once you've departed on your trip, plans can still go wrong.

Unfortunately, baggage loss or damage is not uncommon. Neither are travel delays. Our plans offer coverage for these scenarios. And if your trip is interrupted due to an unforeseen event, our plans may cover that too. Read the full list of covered reasons for Trip Interruption in the policy.

3. Coverage is important in case you get sick or injured while away from home.

Did you know most health insurance plans provide little to no coverage outside the U.S.? Medicare provides none. Within the U.S., many plans provide limited coverage out of your region. If you get sick or injured on your trip, access to medical coverage is important. Many people mistakenly believe medical care outside the U.S. is free or very cheap. This is not the case, particularly for visitors to other countries. In fact, many travelers have been shocked at the cost of care abroad.

The insurance plan also includes coverage for Emergency Medical Evacuation for medically necessary transportation to the nearest hospital or appropriate facility, following a covered illness or injury. Read policy for benefit details.

Life is full of the unexpected. So is travel, which is why we love it.

But sometimes things can go wrong.

Be prepared for unwelcome disruptions with a Tour Protection Plan.

4. The Tour Protection Plan gives you access to global 24/7 assistance services.

Let's say your passport was lost or stolen at the airport. Or your prescription medications were left behind in a hotel. Or you twisted your ankle and need to find a doctor. Who do you call or where do you go for help? Your plan comes with access to 24/7 Travel Assistance services, available at any time, from anywhere in the world. If at any point you have a question during your trip or need assistance, you can call the numbers provided and get immediate assistance from someone in your native language.

5. Peace of mind can help you enjoy your trip to the fullest.

We hope your trip goes smoothly. But think of your non-refundable financial trip expense. Would you be comfortable losing it in the event of a cancellation? And perhaps more importantly, think of the expense you could face if you become sick or injured while traveling and need emergency medical care or an evacuation. Having a travel insurance plan in place can help make your trip more enjoyable and relaxing. And that's the whole point, right?

Don't take it from us. Here's what our customers say:

"I will most definitely take out insurance for all my future travel with this company as a result of my experience... We are getting older as are our parents so this gives us peace of mind in case the unforseeable happens. If it doesn't, it is money well spent for that peace of mind."

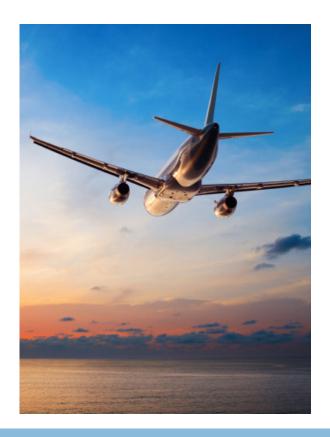

- Diana P. from Massachusetts

"I was really surprised at how affordable the policy was. I was able to get more than basic coverage and even that was not too expensive."

Pam T. from California

"You have provided both of my parents – and me – great relief and peace of mind."

Lauren G. from New York
